

WHAT YOU MAY NEED TO KNOW ABOUT YOUR BENEFITS WHEN YOU GO ON MILITARY LEAVE

To help you prepare for your military leave, we have compiled the following information from pertinent laws, rules, union contracts, and other sources to let you know how your employment benefits may be affected, what you need to do, and whom to contact for further information. Please be aware that this is not a legal document or contract, and is subject to change.

For your information, the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) of 1994 provides protection and rights of reinstatement to employees who participate in the National Guard and Reserve. The Act allows members to go on military duty either voluntarily or involuntarily for a period up to five (5) years and be reinstated with no loss of seniority, status, or pay. For more information on the USERRA, check the following websites:
